

Fern Moulton, both of Heber, took out their marriage license, preparatory to being married in the Salt Lake temple.

Mr. Morgan Leigh Walker of Rock Springs, Wyoming, and Miss Lois May Wherritt were granted a marriage license by county clerk, Sharp, last week end.

Mr. and Mrs. Ed Gillis of Wyoming have been here for a few days getting some of their household belongings and visiting with her mother, Mrs. Nettie Coleman.

Mrs. Henry Moulton spent Tuesday and Wednesday in Salt Lake City, with her son Asael. He returned home with her to remain until Thursday evening when he left for the East to sail for Europe, where he will labor as a missionary.

Mrs. J. W. Cyde is visiting with her daughters, Mrs. Laura Newman and Mrs. Nora Miller in Salt Lake City.

Mrs. Henry Cluff entertained last Thursday evening at a trousseau tea honoring her daughter Afton. A color scheme in pink and white was carried out in flower decorations and at the

Many of our local genealogical workers will be sorry to learn of the death of Miss Nell Sumsion, assistant librarian at the genealogical society in Salt Lake City. She died in the hospital in Salt Lake following a brief illness. She had been engaged there since 1923 and has helped thousands of Church members in searching out their genealogical records and was always very willing to aid. She will be buried in Springville, her home town, today.

Mrs. J. L. Lindsay and daughter LaRae have gone to California to visit with another daughter, Mrs. W. B. Parkinson. Nov 1937

Popular Pair Exchange Vows At Home Ceremony

Standing before a background of ferns and white chrysanthemums and talisman roses, with large bows and streamers of white satin ribbon extending from each basket to form a semi circle, Miss Lois Wherritt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Wherritt, plighted her troth with Morgan Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters of Rock Springs, Wyoming, Saturday evening in the living room at the Wherritt home.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of ice blue and silver lame', and she carried a boquet of talisman roses and white chrysanthemums. Miss Mary Wood of Rock Springs, the bride's only attendant, wore a gown of ashes

Popular Pair Exchange Vows At Home Ceremony

Nov 1937

Standing before a background of ferns and white chrysanthemums and talisman roses, with large bows and streamers of white satin ribbon extending from each basket to form a semi circle, Miss Lois Wherritt, daughter of Dr. and Mrs. W. R. Wherritt, plighted her troth with Morgan Walters, son of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas Walters of Rock Springs, Wyoming, Saturday evening in the living room at the Wherritt home.

The bride was lovely in her wedding gown of ice blue and silver lame', and she carried a boquet of talisman roses and white chrysanthemums. Miss Mary Wood of Rock Springs, the bride's only attendant, wore a gown of ashes of roses taffeta and carried a boquet of pink roses. Hugh Thomas of Rock Springs acted as best man for the bridegroom. Mrs. Wherritt was wearing a lovely model in powder blue lace and black silk crepe, and Mrs. Walters mother of the groom, wore a flowered chiffon in colors of rose, blue and black.

The marriage service was read by the Rev. Jacob Trapp of the Unitarian Church in Salt Lake City, and about fifty relatives and a few friends attended, from Salt Lake City and Rock Springs. The couple will make their home in Rock Springs for the present.

The bride is a graduate of the University of Utah and the groom is a